2 1:54 p.m.)

3 (Replacement interpreter joins 4 deposition.)

5 D E A N M C C O N K E Y ,

6 Spanish Language Interpreter, was 7 thereupon duly sworn on oath to translate 8 faithfully the questions asked and the 9 answers given to the best of his ability.

10 MR. LEON: I'd like to state just 11 one thing on the record.

12 For the translator, I would just 13 respectfully ask that any objections that 14 I make -- I'll keep them as short as 15 possible -- as well as any directions to 16 answer or not answer the question, that 17 they be translated.

18 We consulted the Judge and the Judge
19 is onboard with that instruction.

20 And I just want to, so that I don't 21 talk directly to my client, if you can 22 just advise my client that you're the 23 translator that will be taking over from 24 the other translator from here on.

25 THE INTERPRETER: (Complies).
